

Rights and Responsibilities of Students Receiving Financial Aid

Financial Aid Student's Rights

As a financial aid applicant or recipient, students have the following rights:

- To be advised of what financial aid programs are available and how to apply for them
- To be advised of the requirements in cases of withdrawal, such as refunds or repayments of financial aid
- To be advised of the requirements for maintaining financial aid standards of satisfactory academic progress and good academic standing
- To have all application information treated with the highest confidentiality
- As a borrower, you have a right to cancel all or any part of these loans within 14 days of receiving this letter. If you do wish to cancel any part of the loan, please notify the Financial Aid Office and pay any outstanding balance to the Business Office immediately. If you accept the loans listed above, no further action is necessary on your part.

Financial Aid Student's Responsibilities

As a financial aid applicant or recipient, students have the following responsibilities:

- To apply for financial aid every year
- Complete the FAFSA application form accurately, completely, and in a timely manner
- To provide documentation, verification of income, corrections and or/any information to complete financial aid file
- To accept responsibility for all forms and agreements the student signs
- To use financial aid only for the student's educational expenses
